Day 3: Wednesday, July 30

Location: Library Room, 315 Bloor Street West, Munk School of Global Affairs – Observatory Site, University of Toronto (map)

Day 3 will consist of participant organized breakout groups. The goal of this day is to develop manageable project ideas around the topic of the individual group. These projects should be relatively short term and something that can be committed to and achieved with the people in your group. The goal will be delivering a set of follow-up projects and activities that can be developed after the workshop. Breakout groups for day 3 can be of any size and the structure of the sessions is determined by participants.
