Dear Ronald, thank you for your note. The brief summary of the report you sent includes several inaccuracies, but without additional details we cannot be more specific or provide comment for the record. We would also like to note that, as part of our commitment to our customers and their national security missions, we are dedicated to maintaining the confidentiality of their operations while ensuring they are properly vetted agencies. Furthermore, legal restrictions related to national security and foreign relations may limit our ability to comment.

Regards,
John Fleming
